JEWETT CITY

At the last meeting of the Relief Society, Nov. 23, 1921, the following committee were appointed to arrange for a ladies' and children's social to be held at the Jewett City Hotel, Dec. 10, 1921.

Miss Katherine Noffs, a Riverside Grammar school pupil, was recently showing a full blown case of measles which she picked up on her way to school Dec. 1.

The Broken hospital ambulance came to Jewett City Thursday afternoon to take Miss Flora Lebeau to the hospital for an operation for appendicitis.

After the storm, during which the wind held steadily in the northeast for five days, Dec. 1, it was almost a perfect spring day. The mercury rose to 80.

Mrs. R. F. Cheney has returned from a Thanksgiving visit to her old home in Jamaica, Vt., and tells interesting stories of the great ice and snow storm that swept over that state for nearly a week.

There were from 10 to 12 inches of snow on the level at her home, and further south it was miles of trees were covered by their branches by the weight of ice, leaving only the bare, twisted, and gnarled trunks.

Mrs. Lloyd H. Miller picked three victims and a candidate Dec. 1, who were all bloated in the eyes near her home in the East Main street highlands.

Many went to see the unusual sight of 14 women in the big Assembly hall, who had all been afflicted with measles and were in various stages of the disease.

A mob of others is living in the Ashland street. Several who have had measles in the past are now suffering from the disease.

WESTERLY

Thursday evening a girl residing on Tower street was held up by an unknown man, near the stone-cutting sheds, on Oak street, while on her way home from work. The man seized the young woman and drew her hands behind her. When she started to call for help, he is alleged to have attempted to choke her. The girl broke away from him and ran into a house on Oak street. Men who were there started after the man but were unable to catch him. It has been stated within the last few days that women have been followed by a man in that part of the place.

A soccer was held in the armory on Railroad avenue Thursday evening for the members of the company and their friends. There were several athletic events by members of the company, also music. There was a basketball game between Team A and Team B of the armory league. After the game a collation was served.

Word has been received at the Red Cross headquarters on High street that all ex-servicemen who dropped their war risk insurance when leaving the service can be reinstated if they make applications before the first of January. Only one month of back premium is required upon being reinstated. Applications may be made through the local office of the Red Cross.

Invitations are out for the marriage of W. Potter Hoxie of Westerly and Miss Isabelle Shaw of the Stonington road which will take place Dec. 10.

The Fifth Co., C. A. C., R. I. N. G., has been commended for its exceptionally good work since it was organized June 3, 1921. In the latest edition of the Journal of the U. S. Artillery, which is published at Fort Monmouth, Va., the following notice appears: "This past year the work of the 5th Co., C. A. C., R. I. N. G., of Westerly, was commended by Major General Edwards, Corps area commander. June 3, 1921, I inspected them for federal recognition. They were uniformed and partly equipped and went to camp on July 10 with the rest of the companies at Fort Getty, R. I. There with the 5th Co. R. I. guns they fired the first service shell of the national guard of the United States since the war and scored actual hits on the pyramidal target. Their commanding officer, Capt. Chrystie McConnell, was in the 5th Artillery in the A. E. F. and he chose his N. O. C.'s from his old men. This just shows what could be done in an emergency." There are now 30 men in the company, which leaves seven vacancies to be filled.
